YOUR OPPORTUNITIES FOR PROFITS AND PHILANTHROPY

FEATURING:

Rosemary Elebash

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF INDEPENDENT
BUSINESS ALABAMA STATE DIRECTOR

Rosemary Elebash is a native of Opp, Ala., and a graduate of Troy University. She was appointed as state director of NFIB/Alabama in January 2003 and represents NFIB's Alabama members as the public policy advocate. She represents the members' interests before all branches of state and local government. Prior to the NFIB appointment, she was the state director of law and government affairs for AT&T overseeing legislative and regulatory affairs in both Alabama and Mississippi. She was also served as a staff assistant to U.S. Senator Donald Stewart.

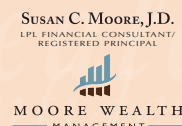

She is an active participant in several organizations including the Alabama private sector chair for the American Legislative Exchange Council, past chairman and current board member of the Baptist Hospital South Advisory Board, board member of the Alabama Hospital Association Special Care Facilities Financing Authority, Treasurer of the Alabama Civil Justice Reform Committee and Executive Board member of the Business Association Tax Coalition. Earlier this year, she was appointed to the Troy University Alumni Board of Directors. In 2004, Governor Bob Riley appointed her to serve as a member of the Unemployment Compensation Reform Committee. Governor Jim Folsom, Jr. appointed her to the Department of Human Resources State Board where she served as vice chairman. She was nominated by U.S. Senator Jeff Sessions and appointed by President George W. Bush to the National Advisory Council on Violence Against Women.
