Barbara Dooley is recognized as an exceptional speaker and storyteller. She charms audiences with her sharp wit, southern humor, and zest for life. As a breast cancer survivor and wife of a throat cancer survivor, her message is both inspirational and powerful.

A native of Birmingham, Alabama, Mrs. Dooley received bachelor's and master's degrees from Auburn University. She now resides in Athens, Georgia where she is a popular television personality, a well received author, award winning real estate professional, and a non-profit volunteer with numerous organizations. She has served on many boards including the United Way, Paralympics, St. Mary's Hospital Foundation and is a member of the Athens Chamber of Commerce Women in Business Council.

Mrs. Dooley is the recipient of countless awards and is recognized as one of the State of Georgia's Most Gracious Ladies. She has been married to Vince Dooley, Former University of Georgia Head Football Coach and Director of Athletics, for almost fifty years.
